

Teacher Leadership Matters

An outcome-oriented professional learning service for teacher leaders in grades K-12 to develop the competencies critical for leading high-functioning teams.

Measurable Outcomes:

- High functioning teacher teams engaged in instructional improvement (QR 4.2)
- Teacher Leaders who are micro-credentialed for exhibiting competencies aligned with nationally-recognized Teacher Leader Model Standards

Teaching Matters' coaches develop and recognize the competencies of teacher leaders to lead high-functioning learning teams that collaborate productively, use assessments and data to drive instruction, and deepen teaching practice.

Teacher leaders will learn how to build a team culture of trust and honesty, establish consistent expectations for students through common assessments and curriculum, guide peers to make decisions based in evidence, and strengthen colleagues' instructional expertise. School leaders will learn how to establish school-wide systems for effective collaboration and distributed leadership, in order to sustainably improve teaching and learning across the school.
